UNDERSTANDING YOUR RESULTS

DNA tests compare specific regions of DNA to determine biological relationships.

INCLUSION (MATCH)

The tested relationship is supported. You are biologically related.

EXCLUSION (NO MATCH)

The tested relationship is not supported. You are not biologically related.

INCONCLUSIVE / UNDETERMINED

A result cannot be determined. This is rare and may occur when the sample quality is not sufficient.

UNEXPECTED RESULT

Results do not match what was expected according to family relationships. We are here to help you understand your options.

All results are reported with a Probability of Paternity, Relationship Index, or other statistical value to show the strength of the result.

HOW RESULTS ARE REPORTED
